Summary of Experience

Soki was the project architect on the Financial Conduct Authority, (FCA), headquarters in the International Quarter London in Stratford, a new business quarter where RSHP has designed several major commercial buildings for Lendlease. These are designed around the core values of promoting health and wellbeing in the workplace and the FCA was shortlisted for a BCO (British Council for Offices) award in 2018.

Soki worked on LSE Centre Building, a sustainable landmark academic building at the heart of the school's Aldwych campus which was awarded a BREEAM Outstanding environmental certification.

He also worked on Double Cove, which won the International Property Awards for Best Residential High-Rise Development, Best Architectural Multiple Residence, Best Mixed-Use Architecture in 2015.

Soki works on many of RSHP's competitions.
